Thanksgiving Dinner at the DC Housing Finance Agency

WHO:

Todd A. Lee, Executive Director/CEO, DCHFA, volunteers from the community and DCHFA employees

WHAT:

DCHFA is opening its doors on Thanksgiving Day to distribute 200 dinners to at risk, homeless families and/or individuals in need of a meal. Dinner will be served by DCHFA staff members and their families who are giving up a part of their Thanksgiving holiday to ensure that others in the community are fed.

DCHFA seeks to ensure that as many people as possible know that they can come to the Agency for a meal on Thanksgiving Day. All are welcome.
